

Bishop Memorial Chapel - Kamehameha Schools Wedding Ministers

Kahu Kordell Kekoa

Kahu Kekoa is the retired Chaplain of the Kamehameha Schools Kapālama Campus. Since 2001 Kahu Kordell has been a faithful servant-leader of the faculty, administration and students in grades K-12. He was the Pastor of the Bishop Memorial Chapel which served the boarding staff and students. He is called upon to give spiritual direction to Kamehameha Schools enterprise wide. Kahu Kordell is always in great demand by alumni and staff to officiate their wedding because of his relaxed style and the wonderful mana`o he shares and imparts to each bridal couple and `ohana.

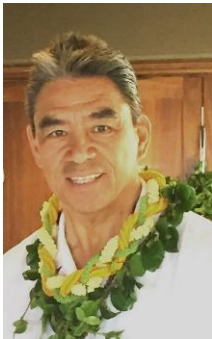

Kahu Kelekona Bishaw

Kahu Kelekona is a 1974 graduate of the Kamehameha Schools. He pastors Real Life Christian Center, a growing Christian Church in Honolulu. They meet weekly at Kalihi Elementary School. Kahu Kelekona has 16 years of experience as a senior pastor and has assisted the Bishop Memorial Chapel with weddings for the last few years. Wedding couples love Kahu Kelekona's "down-to-earth" style and how he personalizes his wedding ceremony to the individuals; almost as if he's known them for many years.

Kahu Hailama Farden

Kahu Hailama V. K. K. Farden is a 1989 graduate of the Kamehameha Schools. He has been employed at Kamehameha School for over 20 years and is currently the Regional Director, Community Engagement & Resources Group – Kamehameha Schools. Kahu Hailama has been serving as Minister at Wai`anae Protestant Church since 2005. He is a former Hawaiian Language teacher at Kamehameha and is able to conduct the entire wedding ceremony, or portions of the wedding in the Hawaiian Language.

Kahu Wendell Davis

Kahu Wendell B.K. Davis currently serves as Chaplain of Mid-Pacific Institute and is a graduate of the Kamehameha Schools Class of 1971. He previously served as Senior Pastor of Kahikolu Congregational Church in Kepulu, South Kona and Chaplain of Kamehameha Schools Hawai'i. A graduate of the University of Hawai'i – Manoa, Kahu Davis became an ordained minister in 1998 and is currently, seeking his doctoral degree in pastoral ministry. Today, Kahu Davis continues his ministry through Bishop Memorial Chapel performing weddings as well as a devotional outreach that has impacted many lives both in Hawai'i and throughout the world.